

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Brentwood Christian School is in search of a dynamic and dedicated Defensive Coordinator with line experience for the 2022-2023 school year. Brentwood is a private Christian school on 45 beautiful acres in Austin, Texas. Since 1963, Brentwood has been providing Austin and surrounding area families with a quality education that includes and prioritizes the instilling of traditional Christian values and fostering a love for God in its students. With a supportive administration and a heart for service, there is no better place than Brentwood Christian School.

This position will be responsible for developing defensive game strategies, training players based on their strengths and weaknesses, cooperating in pre and post-workouts, maintaining discipline and conduct standards for players, and assisting the head coach with administrative duties as needed as well as overseeing study hall classes during the school day.

The ideal candidate will have a Bachelor's degree, 3+ years coaching at the high school or college level, the ability to demonstrate the physical aspects of the sport, the ability to lift up to 50 pounds, and be an active member of a Christian church.

This position is full-time and eligible for benefits including medical, dental, vision, life insurance, flexible spending accounts, 403(b) retirement savings plan, tuition discount, paid school breaks, and PTO. All candidates must complete an online application, submit to a background check, and provide proof of authorization to work in the United States.
