BRAD ELLISON

PHILOSOPHY OF ATHLETICS

I believe that athletics is yet another tool that allows coaches the opportunity to train children, in conjunction with parents, to use the gifts given to them to glorify God. Through athletics we get to teach kids about working together, on a team, to achieve team goals with individual effort.

EXPERIENCE

Teaching and Administration

Fall 2006 - Abilene Christian Schools – Assistant Athletic Director & Bible Teacher

Spring 2015 I have great experience teaching in both middle and high school levels. I served as assistant athletic director, interim education administrator, and head football coach. During this period of time, I began my career and developed my abilities in leadership, mentoring, and coaching.

Fall 2015, Director of Athletics - The Covenant School - Dallas, TX

Current I assisted with developing and administering a Christ-centered athletics program that supports the school's mission and vision and reflects the school's philosophy of athletics. I've overseen the development of the athletic program growth from 2A to 4A level in TAPPS including overseeing and implementing an athletic handbook, adding two assistant athletic directors, new football field renovation, gym floor renovations, and sponsorship programs. I am leading over ninety coaching positions in the department and navigating conflict amongst the department.
